

Philip Rosenberg and Isaac Hurwitz

NOVEMBER 13, 2016

All Weekender: Philip and Isaac and their guests took over the property for the weekend for numerous wedding events—a cowboy cookout rehearsal dinner, an old-fashioned New York-style piano bar in the rustic main living room, a desert ceremony and poolside next-day brunch. Meanwhile, at the Ranch: Guests played golf, shot skeet and rode horses while Philip and Isaac got ready for their sunset wedding. Two if by Horseback: Isaac and Philip each entered the ceremony on horseback before being walked down the aisle by their parents. Full-Size Fanny: A life-sized cutout of their dog, Fanny, allowed her to be present despite her not making the journey from their home in New York. A Burrito Wrap: The day-after brunch included a make-your-own-burrito bar, a tribute to the guys' first date, and the breakfast burrito Isaac presented to Philip when he proposed.
